

SACG Meeting Minutes

October 19, 2020

City Hall Museum

1. Welcome- President Fish greeted eleven members in attendance at 6:02 pm
2. Secretary Report – The September minutes were accepted by Wilda Solberg and Deb Oldakowski. All Ayes. Jill Hidingier informed members thank you notes have been mailed to all donors for derecho relief.
3. Treasurer Report – Jay Herman reported balances for our Regular Checking account and our Savings/Memorial account held at PSB. Income reported $70.00 from Wells Fargo. There were no expenses. There is currently a total of $2475 in the Derecho Relief account for Shellsburg. Jay read aloud a letter he received from Jim and Jacqui Hodgson asking SACG to use their previously donated funds to go toward Shellsburg Derecho Relief instead of a memorial.
- 4. Old Business
  - a. Sun Sail – Deb Oldakowski researched Shadessystemsinc.com, a company that specializes in various styles of sun sails for parks and recreational use similar to what Center Point has done. There may be special requirements to consider for public use. Nancy Thorkildson mentioned we could also investigate Shade Creations of Waterloo and Iowa Parks & Recreation.
  - b. Alliant Donation – Debi Reynolds asked SACG to hold onto this donation in total for now
  - c. Park Clean-up – Jean Fish gave an overview of what was accomplished. Approximately seven community members, including Mayor Lonnie showed up.
  - d. Trail Clean-up – Nancy Thorkildson complimented Ryan Davis for managing this effort.
  - e. Go Fund Me site – Discussion about leaving this account open for potential Derecho Relief donors for now.
  - f. Reminder – No Holiday Party this year
- 5. Committees
  - a. Golf – Nancy Thorkildson and Marlys Harms haven't done anything more since the event was cancelled. New date for 2021 is July 19th.
  - b. Economic Development – Jill Hidingier said nothing to report
  - c. Horticulture – Meri Mott shared there was money left from the budgeted amount given by SACG
- 6. New Business
  - a. Park Decorating - Show up on Nov. 7th at 10:00 AM to help decorate the park pavilion and gazebo for the holidays. Bring extension cords. Wilda Solberg is looking into getting a larger tree.
  - b. Officers – Vote to be held at our next meeting November 16th. Thanks to the members that have shown interest in President, Vice President and Director roles.

c. Other Ideas – Jim Hiding asked for members to work with him in planning and testing out the disc golf concept that was discussed in a previous SACG meeting. He asked for at least one SACG member and a council member. Deb Oldakowski and Nancy Thorkildson will be working with Jim.

Adjourn – Marlys Harms made a motion to adjourn at 7:00 pm, seconded by Wilda Solburg. All Ayes.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jill Hiding
